

BISOM Winter Meeting 2024 Scientific Programme

Rheumatological Advances in Oral Medicine Practice

Online | Friday 8th November 2024

9:00-9:10	Dr John Steele BISOM president	Welcome to the meeting
Time	Speaker	Topic	Aims and objectives
Session 1 Chair: Dr John Buchanan
Keynote speakers
9:10-9:55	Prof. Ali Jawad Professor of Rheumatology, Queen Mary University of London	Rheumatology in relation to Oral Medicine	To discuss advances in rheumatic diseases relevant to oral medicine practice.
9:55-10:40	Prof. David Isenberg Emeritus Professor of Rheumatology, University College London	Systemic lupus erythematosus – outcome, origins and outlook	To describe: - the clinical and serological features of SLE including oral involvement - the current outlook and clinical ‘connections’ including Sjogren’s - current treatments - its origins using a card game analogy - insight into where we are up to with new treatments
10:40-11:25	Dr Elizabeth Price Consultant Rheumatologist at Great Western Hospital NHS FT, Swindon	New guidelines for diagnosis and management of Sjogren's Disease 2024	To ensure that delegates understand how to diagnose and manage individuals with Sjogren’s Disease.
Break – 11:25-11:40 – E-posters available here https://bisom.org.uk/view-meeting-poster-submissions/ - Password: 2024Poster

Session 2 Chair: Professor Stephen Porter

Oral presentations from selected abstracts

11:40-11:55	Faisal S Alhedyan University of Sheffield	Investigating Oral Cancer Progression: Exploring Transcriptomic Profiles and Targeting DNA Methylation as a Therapeutic Approach Using Tissue-Engineered Models
11:55-12:10	Charlie Rose Cardiff University School of Dentistry	What are the oral health implications of using snus? A systematic review
12:10:12:25	Delsa Ghorbani Wythenshawe Hospital	Fluconazole Resistance in Candida albicans: Implications for Antifungal Prescribing in Dentistry
12:55-13:10	Lydia Cross Glasgow Dental Hospital and School/Royal Hospital for Children; Edinburgh Dental Institute/Royal Hospital for Children and Young People	Reactive infectious mucocutaneous eruption – a case series

Lunch 13:10-13:40 – E-posters available here <https://bisom.org.uk/view-meeting-poster-submissions/> - Password: 2024Poster

Session 3 Chair: Dr Martyn Ormond

Oral presentations from selected abstracts

13:40-13:50	Martyn Ormond	BISOM Quality Improvement & Clinical Audit Update
-------------	----------------------	--

13:50-14:05	Christine Park Glasgow Dental Hospital and School	A retrospective review of new patients discharged at first visit in Oral Medicine
14:05-14:20	Ellis Hayes NHS Ayrshire & Arran	An injectable cure? A Service Evaluation Audit on the use of Botulinum Toxin in an Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery Unit, providing the Oral Medicine service, in a District General Hospital.
14:20-14:35	Manveer Chhina Glasgow Dental Hospital and School	Evaluating MRI requests for Trigeminal Neuralgia: relevance, quality, incidental findings
Keynote speaker
14:35-15:25	Prof. Ian Giles Professor of Rheumatology, University College London	Recommendations for rheumatological treatments during pregnancy	To provide delegates with information on evidence-based documents to guide use of rheumatologic treatments during pregnancy. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understand the need for evidence-based documents to enable continuation of treat to target regimes in rheumatic disease in pregnancy - Learn how evidence-based guidance is produced and influences clinical practice Outcome - Give practical advice on how to integrate best practice from guidance document into the systems in which they operate

Break 15:25-15:35 – E-posters available here <https://bisom.org.uk/view-meeting-poster-submissions/> - Password: 2024Poster

Session 4 Chair: Dr John Steele
Oral presentations from selected abstracts

15:35-15:50	Molly Harte Guy's Hospital	Paraneoplastic Autoimmune Multiorgan Syndrome complicated by Hepatitis B infection
15:50-16:05	Millicent Forrest Glasgow Dental Hospital	A Case of Complex Temporomandibular Disorder Pain with Central Sensitisation on a Background of Psychosocial Stressors
Keynote speaker
16:05-16:50	Dr. Venkat Reddy Associate Professor, University College London	Biologics in Oral Medicine: an overview and Rheumatology perspectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To understand an overview of the pathomechanisms of inflammation oral manifestations of immune-mediated inflammatory disease - To provide an update on management of oral manifestations of immune-mediated inflammatory disease: focus on B cell targeted therapies
16:50-17:00	Dr John Steele	Prizes & Meeting closure	